Texas Administrative Code

- This property received either public funds or low income housing tax credits through the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs ("TDHCA"). That means this property must follow certain State rules that are in the Texas Administrative Code or "TAC."
- Part of the TAC says rental properties must have certain policies.

Texas Property Code

This property must follow all applicable Texas State Landlord-Tenant Laws, which outline the responsibilities of landlords and tenants in residential rental agreements. These laws can be found in the Texas Property Code at <https://goo.gl/aHDQ7e>.

Land Use Restriction Agreement (“LURA”)

- This property must operate in accordance with its Land Use Restriction Agreement (“LURA”) as affordable housing, whether or not ownership or management agents change.
- The LURA:
 - Says the property must be suitable for occupancy and in good repair;
 - Sets the maximum rents that can be charged;
 - Prohibits evictions for other than good cause;
 - Prohibits the owner from denying admission to any person exclusively on the basis of such person receiving rental assistance under a local, state, federal or other housing assistance program, including, but not limited to, Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 as amended.
 - Lists the number and type of property amenities and/or services that must be provided by the TDHCA monitored property. The amenities and/or services required to be provided at this property include: [This section should not be blank when provided to the tenant.]

Your Rights as a Renter in a TDHCA Monitored Property

In addition to Texas Property Code requirements, TDHCA Monitored Property Owners Must:

- Keep properties suitable for occupancy and in good repair consistent with Uniform Physical Condition Standards (“UPCS”) published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”).

- Estimate utility costs at the property, annually review the utility allowance they calculate, and make utility allowances available for inspection. Utility allowances are used to help determine the amount a property owner will charge for rent.
- Provide reasonable accommodations or modifications for a tenant's disability at the property owner's expense unless the request presents an undue financial and administrative burden on the owner or if the property was awarded tax credits before 2001 (unless otherwise agreed to in the LURA).
- Offer written leases.
- Provide tenants with written notice in the event of lease termination or non-renewal.

TDHCA Monitored Property Owners Are Not Allowed To:

- Lock out or seize property of tenants who have not paid rent except by judicial process or as expressly allowed under Texas Government Code §2306.6738 (cases of necessary repair, construction work, emergencies, or in the event of tenant abandonment of a unit).
- Charge rents in excess of program-specific rent limits that are published each year.
- Require households that get rent payment help from a federal program, such as Housing Choice Voucher/Section 8, HOME or other federal program, to establish a minimum income standard that requires more than 2.5 times their portion of the monthly rent or $2,500 whichever is greater.
 - Example: If your household gets federal rent payment help and your household's portion of the rent is $200 per month, you do not have to show that your household makes more than $500 per month ($$200 \times 2.5 = \500) to be eligible for housing.
 - Example: If your household gets federal rent payment help and your household income is less than $50 per month, you do not have to show that your household makes more than $2,500 per year to be eligible for housing.
- Deny households housing just because of participation in the Housing Choice Voucher/Section 8, HOME or other federal, state, or local rental assistance program
- Refuse to renew the lease or evict tenants without good cause. Landlords may not retaliate against renters who have made a discrimination complaint or who have assisted others in exercising their fair housing rights, including rights to request a reasonable accommodation or modification.

Fair Housing - It's Your Right!

This property must follow federal, state, and local fair housing laws. Fair housing laws say everyone has a right to fair and equal housing choices and opportunities. This means you cannot be denied an apartment based on your race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, or whether or not your household includes children under the age of 18.

For example, all properties must:

- Give everyone the same rental terms and conditions.
- Show everyone the location of every available apartment.
- Advertise to everyone broadly and in a non-discriminatory manner.
- Make reasonable accommodations or modifications for people with disabilities.
 - A reasonable accommodation or modification request may be made by a person with a disability or on their behalf. The accommodation or modification must:
 - Be related to a disability;
 - Not cause an undue administrative and financial burden to the owner; and

- Not change the basic nature of the program governing the property
- If your request is denied, your property representative must talk with you about an alternative option that may meet your disability-related needs.

How to Request Reasonable Accommodations and Modifications

- If you have a disability-related need, ask your property manager for the Reasonable Accommodation Policy. This policy will tell you how to request an accommodation or modification. A tenant should know that a property can request verification of a disability if the disability or need for the accommodation is not obvious, but the property cannot request information about the nature, extent, or severity of the disability.
 - Reasonable Accommodations: A reasonable accommodation is a change in the way things are usually done that may be needed for a person with a disability to use and enjoy a dwelling or common area. Examples include:
 - Allowing a service dog, even if the property has a 'no pet' policy.
 - Providing an assigned parking space closer to a unit.
 - Requesting a unit transfer from an upper floor to a ground floor unit.
 - Requesting interpreters or auxiliary aids to communicate effectively with management.
 - Reasonable Modifications: A reasonable modification is a change to an apartment.
 - Property managers may allow a disabled person to make changes to an apartment.
 - The disabled person may have to pay for the changes.
 - Examples of reasonable modifications include:
 - Adding grab bars to a bath tub or shower
 - Widening doorways
 - Adding a ramp to make an entrance accessible
- A tenant should know that owners have a right to deny a request in certain situations.
- Reasonable accommodations or modifications for the tenant's disability may be provided at the owner's expense unless the request presents an undue financial or administrative burden on the owner or the property was awarded tax credits before 2001.
 - If you need to find out if a property was awarded tax credits before 2001 or to request a copy of the LURA, contact TDHCA at 800-525-0657 or email open.records@tdhca.state.tx.us.
